_	Name	Date
Asses	sment
		Theme 6: Understanding the IRS Lesson 2: Your First Job
Part 1
Fill in the bla	anks with words or phrases from the list be	low.
tax withhold financial rec exempt earned incor dependent	cords
1.		g paycheck stubs; Form W-4 worksheets; d; and records of gifts, tips, and bonuses
2.	A is support.	s a person who relies on someone else for
3.	is n an employee's pay in order to pay part o	noney that an employer holds back from r all of the employee's taxes.
4.	Being	means being free from withholding of
5.	includes wages, salaries, tips, net earnings from self-employment, and other income received for personal services.
Part 2
Indicate whe lines provide	ther each of the following statements is tri ed.	e or false. Write your answers on the
1.	In the "pay-as-you-go" method of tax pa is earned or received during the year.	yment, a taxpayer pays the tax as income

Without tax withholding, many people would find it difficult to save enough

After completing Form W-4, an employee gives both the worksheet and Only people who own computers can keep financial records.

People who are exempt from withholding do not need to have federal income tax money to pay their income taxes all at once.

certificate to the employer.

taken out of their paychecks.

2.

3.

4.

5.

Part 3

Write the letter of the best answer for each item that follows. For most people, federal income tax is collected A. yearly. B. once every three months. C. on a pay-as-you-go basis. D. by the Social Security Administration. On a Form W-4 taxpayers may claim A. unearned income. B. withholding allowances. C. sick days. D. their right to join a union. Examples of financial records include A. paycheck stubs. B. W-4 worksheets. C. records of tips. D. all of the above. The best system for keeping financial records is A. a computer program. B. a budget notebook. C. a checkbook. D. whatever system works best for a person. An employer withholds taxes from an employee's A. holiday fruit basket and turkey B. lottery winnings C. salaries and wages. D. interest and dividends.